The published Reporter, which will appear as a supplement to each number, with separate paging and index will gather together such statistics as exist on are to be got concerning the agriculture and resources of the provinces, and the commerce. population, revenues, debt, and public works of the empire, and will present them in the almplest and most useful form the Editor can R. FRITZ RAPP has been duly an. It is hoped that the publication of this journal thorized to sign our firm, per procura will give a new impetus to statistical inquiries in India, and be the means of apreading exact information upon questions on which Indian publicists and statesmen are now constantly at fault from the want of it. The most manifest defect probably in our administrative system is the fact that there is not a district in the empire the exact position and resources of which are known to us. The very first condition of sign cessful administration is thus wanting. In Orlsea, the other day, a narrow export of 30,000 tons of rice from a province containing 3.000,000 of people growing nothing but rice, was held to be conclusive proof that large food reserved existed in the province, while a very brief statistical inquiry would have shown that so parrow an export in the face of the high prices that buil been ruling for years, proved that the province HAVE this day established myself an a was normally treading on the verge of famine, There are no satisfactory statistics as present in India upon any subject but its trade. while such as do exist are barried in the recesses. of the Secretariats, or in the Appendices to Parhamentary Returns, out of reach of the public. Long familiarity with the kind of information wanted, the sources from which it in o be obtained, and the shape in which it requires to be presented, furnishes the Editor, he id himself believes, with special qualifications for the task be has andertaken. He proposes to meet a want which he has felt keenly himself, and believes that his new journal will be found to be indispensable by every merchant, journalist. and civilian in the country, within a very fuw
